Day 03 Praslin

After breakfast, rest of the day at leisure, or take an optional tour of Praslin. Praslin, Seychelles' is a second largest island; we will escort you to the legendary Vallée de Mai, home to the fabulous Coco de Mer and once believed to be the original site of the Garden of Eden. Now a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this was once the property of France Jumeau, responsible for giving the Vallée its name and tour in the shade of this primeval forest that bustles with life from its floor to its tree tops, you will witness how the world's heaviest nut grows high on ancient palms. Leaving the Vallée behind us we will take you to Praslin's colourful Baie Ste Anne jetty where you will trace the footsteps of Seychelles' earliest visitors by boarding a traditional schooner to the island of La Digue. Our tour of l'Union Estate will reveal the secrets of the production of 'coprah' the flesh of the coconut that you will find drying in the kiln and taste while it is still warm. You will learn how coconut oil is made and have the opportunity of taking in the delights of the giant tortoise pen and the architectural splendour of the Plantation House. Our photo-stop at nearby Anse Source D'Argent will take your breath away as you capture the extraordinary beaches, framed by limpid turquoise waters and age-old granite boulders. A delicious Creole buffet lunch will be served for you at "Loutier Coco" after which we will invite you to enjoy an afternoon of leisure on the beach before again taking to the hotel. Overnight at the hotel.
